

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Matthew Larson. I have come to know Mr. Larson as his cooperating teacher for his student teaching experience.

Mr. Larson has shown a very strong content knowledge in the area of social studies. He clearly has passion for his content and for teaching. He strives to find engaging ways for students to connect with the content and make it relevant to their lives today. He challenges students to think deeper than just what happened but to think of its impact and lasting impression on the world today and more importantly them specifically.

Mr. Larson strives to find creative ways to get students involved in the content. He has created many different assignments and activities that reach students of different learning styles and ability levels. His creativity and drive to find different methods and techniques to reach more students is an incredible testament to his goal of helping all students learn and achieve.

I feel that Mr. Larson would be a great addition to you teaching staff because of these and other amazing qualities. If you need any additional information, feel free to contact me at 701-390-6630 or by email at beckert@lightofchristschools.org anytime.

Sincerely,

Brett Eckert
